Bosnia Annexation the Cause

Up to the time of the Austrian an exation of Bosnia and Herzegovina in 1908, the relations between the two friendly. They had made a working errangement to the Balkans regarding onditions in Macedonia, and although t had not accomplished much, every thing was moving along smoothly. But the precipitate move of the late Aus trian foreign minister, Count Achres that, in the annexation of Bosnia, m set everything. The Russian ministesweisky felt that he had been dupe sy the Ametrian colleague and neve formave him. Since then Iswolsky ha been Austro-Hungary's hitterest enemy, and since he is one of the mos National committee he has been able to make things very disagreeable is many respects for the dual monarchy indeed there is very good authority for believing that an Austro-Russia war was very near just before the Balkim war broke out in the fall of 1912 it was only through the strong per cond efforts of the venerable Austrian Emperer, Francis Joseph, that such stastrophe was prevented. bought that the Emperor Nicholas was just as much opposed to a war out he is no politician and by no mean strong enough to hold back the fire brands in the Russian National con-

The personal relations between th two imperial families are of the most cordiat character. It is sometime ven said that the Hapsburgs are realy pro-Russian. The late Archduke Charles Louis, brother of the Emperor and the father of Archduke Francis Ferdinand, the heir to itse throne, was always a great friend of Russia and his sympathies in that direction are believed to have been to some extent inherited by his son.

Archduke Charles Louis who was he parton of the principal Austrian industrial associations and a very far ighted man, perceived the important role that commerce and industry would one day play in international relations, at least twenty years before us setback in the special session of European statesmen had beaun to pa any attention to these factors. He knew very well that Russia would nev er be likely to injure Austria's foreig. commerce very much, while German would some day ruln it. Events have proved the correctness of the Archduke's views. Twenty-five years ann Ameria-Hungary almor nonopolized the trade of the Balkan and Turkey and Egypt. Today the bulk of the trade in these countries has gone into the hands of the Ger mans, Indeed the aggressive methods of German merchants in trying to capture Austria's commerce in the near East are bitterly resented by their Austrian rivols.

Religious Differences Big Factor.

The sympathics and feelings of the We governments and the two neoples are very different from those prevailing hetween the rulers. The so-called Na tional committee in Russia is most violently anti-Austrian and is straining deaths from "gunshot wounds innet—the bill antibornation of arms.

ENUMERATOR IS APPOINTED.

Children of School Age.

The board of education of Schoolraft township has appointed F. Weisenauer enumerator for the dis trict, his territory to embrace Torel Lake and Schoolcraft townships. Ha will begin his work immediately in order that it may be completed before the first of June. The duty of the enumerator is to secure the names of all children between the age of five and twenty upon which is based the township's apportionment of state primary school funds.

Because of this fact, parents are isked to co-operate with the enumerator and give the correct age of children. Many parents are of the belief that only the names of children wh are attending school are desired. This s erroneous however as the names c children of the above mentioned age are desired.
